Jasa Marga (JSMR IJ)

A Defensive Choice; Maintain BUY

- BUY, new IDR5,400 TP from IDR5,200, 43% upside, c.2% yield. We see Jasa Marga as a defensive stock, as the Government has further relaxed regulations on face masks. After the seasonal spike during Lebaran, June weekly revenue was at 21% above pre-pandemic levels – this should be boosted by eight more toll tariff hikes this year. JSMR has reduced IDR14.9trn of debt since Jan 2022, and its weighted average cost of debt (WACD) was at 6.52% early this year. Despite our 7.5% WACD assumption, we raise FY23-24F earnings forecasts by 8% and 6% due to its lower debt.
- Robust traffic growth; tariff hikes ahead. During Lebaran, JSMR's weekly revenue reached 54% above pre-pandemic levels (Feb 2020), and normalised in June – still 21% above Feb 2020's levels. Total toll traffic in 1Q23 rose 8.3% YoY, with stronger growth from its subsidiaries (+12.3% YoY) thanks to the connectivity of the Trans Jawa Toll Road. This year, the company planned to increase tariffs for 10 toll roads – tariffs for two toll roads (Balikpapan-Samarinda and Bogor Outer Ring Road) have already been increased.
- Low WACD with lighter debt. Although the 7-day reverse repo rate (7DRRR) has risen 225bps since 2022, JSMR's cost of debt is still lagging behind (6.52% as of January). Management conservatively guided WACD of 7.5% this year, while debt refinancing was kept at 7%. JSMR has also lowered its total debt by IDR14.9trn since Jan 2022, leading us to revise up our FY23-24F earnings by 8% and 6%, given the lower financing costs.
- No large development capex, positive for JSMR. The cancellation of the Getaci (Gedebage-Tasikmalaya-Cilacap) construction is positive for JSMR, as the company will not have to incur the huge development capex amidst the high interest rate environment. This year, JSMR has allocated a total capex of IDR8-10trn (IDR1.5-2trn maintenance capex, and the rest for the completion of Japek South and Cinere-Serpong).
- Awaiting more details on divestment of Jasamarga Transjawa Tol (JTT). Details of the JTT divestment have not been disclosed. However, we think asset recycling is likely to happen via a strategic partnership, as a JTT IPO could reduce the appetite for JSMR. JTT's pricing will also be lucrative, potentially at around 3.0x P/B as the Trans Jawa toll road's connectivity has strongly increased traffic volumes.
- ESG overlay. JSMR's TP includes a 2% ESG premium, based on its ESG score of 3.1, which is above the country median.
- Key risks: Higher interest rates, and increasing maintenance and construction costs.
