Plantation (NEUTRAL)

Balance Of Risks Supportive Of CPO Prices

Regional Sector Update

Top Picks: Kuala Lumpur Kepong, IOI Corp, and Wilmar International. We believe medium-term prospects for CPO prices are improving, given the ongoing supply risks and improving demand outlook. In the short term, however, prices could be largely influenced by Indonesia's export policies and the impact this would have on Malaysian palm oil stocks. Maintain NEUTRAL on sector, with a trading strategy.

Dayang Enterprise (DEHB MK, BUY, TP: MYR1.53)

MCM Contract Extended Until End-FY23; Keep BUY

Company Update

Keep BUY and MYR1.53 TP (14x FY23F P/E), 39% upside. We are upbeat on the amendment and extension of Dayang Enterprise's maintenance, construction and modification (MCM) contract from Petronas Carigali, as this ensures the sustainability of job flow until end-2023. The upward adjustment of >20% in service rates is likely to cushion the impact of a higher cost of doing business, and lead to stronger margins for the company.

Prepaid Slippage

Results Review

Maintain NEUTRAL, with a higher DCF-derived TP of MYR3.72 from MYR3.65, c.6% upside and c.4% yield. Results at 3Q and 9M were a miss notwithstanding a one-off tax penalty refund (c.MYR12m) with seasonally higher opex expected in 4Q22. Fixed broadband and enterprise growth is given, albeit with nominal contributions still. We trim FY22F core earnings but bump up FY24-25F by 4-6% post the results call. Our TP has factored in the 12.5% equity subscription in Digital Nasional and a 6% ESG premium. Analyst: Jeffrey Tan +603 9280 8863
